I LOVE EU

San Miniato 6/11 marzo 2019

Progetto KA1 n. 2018-3-IT03-KA105-015373

I LOVE EU is the acronym of the project title “ I Like to Vote in my first Elections to the Eu Parliament”.

I Love EU project gathers together 55 young boys and girls coming from 11 different countries, all of them at their first voting experience for the renewal of the European Parliament, and 11 group leaders.

The applicant organization for the I LOVE EU project is:

FTS Fondazione Toscana Sostenibile, a no-profit organization established in San Miniato, Italy, in 2002 to promote sustainable development models through research activities and diffusion of knowledge with the support of NKey , engaged in Erasmus plus projects for years.

The partner organizations are:

Sdruzhenie Walk Together, Bulgaria; Horizons For Youth, Greece; Budapest Association for International Sports, Hungary; Alternate Reality, Latvia; Lietuvos jaunimo centras, Lithuania; PRISMS, Malta; Asociatia Pro-xpert Romania; CLASH, Spain; Ceska Rada Deti a Mladeze, Czech Republic; CEBS, Poland;

The project has the main purposes of :

- Improving the knowledge of young people about the European institutions
- Encouraging participation in the European Parliament Election in May 2019

All the participants from the ten countries will be hosted in Tuscany, Italy, for 6 days of practical and intellectual activities, studied by expert trainers to increase each other confidence and awareness, improve communication , create lasting relationships and friendship.

The final purpose is to create young Europeans more and more conscious of the importance of their participation to the European Parliament election.

An integral part of every European project is dissemination and these youngsters will be trained to become ambassadors in their own countries of the European message.
